

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI TORINO

Rector's Decree n. 1667 dated 4th May 2018

SUBJECT: Open Call for Admission to PhD Positions of the PhD programme in “Sociology and Methodology of Social Research” (SOMET), 34th cycle

Deadline: 7th June 2018 at 12.00 p.m. (noon, Central Europe Time)

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

ART. 1 PhD PROGRAMME

The competitive public call for admission to PhD Programme in “Sociology and Methodology of Social Research” (SOMET) jointly activated by the Università degli Studi di Torino and the Università degli Studi di Milano is open. The Università degli Studi di Torino is the administrative head office. According to the Italian Regulation DM 45/2013, the PhD programme will be activated upon Ministerial accreditation. Successful applicants will be enrolled conditionally to the Ministerial accreditation.

ART. 2 PhD POSITIONS

Available positions are:

- Positions with scholarships;
- Positions without scholarships;
- Position reserved to positions with international qualifications with or without scholarships.

Number and types of available positions, with or without financial support, topics of research projects, entry requirements, selection procedure and admissions criteria are outlined in the PhD Programme Information Sheet (Annex 4).

The list of research topics is available at the following websites: <https://www.unito.it/postlaurea/dottorato/sociologia-e-metodologia-della-ricerca-sociale> and <https://en.unito.it/postdegree/phd/sociology-and-methodology-social-research>. This list and number of positions may be updated until the call deadline (7th June 2018). Updates will be published only on the following websites <https://www.unito.it/postlaurea/dottorato/sociologia-e-metodologia-della-ricerca-sociale> and <https://en.unito.it/postdegree/phd/sociology-and-methodology-social-research>.

Applicants who are already winners of positions announced within the framework of specific agreements the University of Torino is part of or applicants who have been successful after a competitive selection within the framework of international mobility programmes may enrol into the PhD Programme (provided that such positions are offered by the PhD Programme), upon approval of the PhD Programme Doctoral Board. In this case, applicants shall contact the University PhD Office at dottorati@unito.it.

Scholarships will be awarded according to the merit ranking (Art. 8 of the Call).

Dates and venues of entrance examinations will be published on the University websites: <https://www.unito.it/postlaurea/dottorato/sociologia-e-metodologia-della-ricerca-sociale> and <https://en.unito.it/postdegree/phd/sociology-and-methodology-social-research> from 7th June 2018. Any changes to dates or venues will be published only on the above-mentioned websites. Applicants will not receive any personal communication.

The results concerning all steps of the selection and evaluation procedures will be published on university web sites <https://www.unito.it/postlaurea/dottorato/sociologia-e-metodologia-della-ricerca-sociale> and <https://en.unito.it/postdegree/phd/sociology-and-methodology-social-research>. Applicants will not receive any personal communication

ART. 3 ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants of any citizenship and age can participate to this Call for Admission, provided that they meet one of the following requirements:

- A degree awarded by an Italian University prior to Ministerial Decree 509/99, i.e. laurea vecchio ordinamento (L);
- A second level degree awarded by an Italian University (pursuant to Ministerial Decree 509/99 and Ministerial Decree 270/04, i.e. laurea magistrale (LM) or laurea specialistica (LS));
- A Master's degree level or other equivalent academic qualification of second cycle level awarded by a foreign university and granting access to PhD studies.

Applicants whose degrees will be awarded after call deadline (7th June 2018) may apply under the condition that their qualification is obtained within 31 October 2018.

Applicants that are holders or are applying for international protection shall contact the PhD office (dottorati@unito.it) that will start a dedicated assessment procedure.

ART. 4 INTERNATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

In order to be considered eligible to apply within this call for PhD admission, higher education degrees awarded by non-Italian universities must be equivalent to an Italian second level degree (Art.3, paragraphs 1 and 2). The Examination Board (Art. 8) will carry out a comparative assessment of qualifications to award, for the sole purpose of admission to this selection process, the recognition of eligibility of international qualifications.

Applicants must therefore upload within the on-line application procedure the following documents:

1. First and second cycle degree diplomas - Bachelor's and Master's Degree level according to the Bologna Process that allow admission to PhD level/3rd cycle studies in the home country, awarded by a recognized academic Institution, with final mark;
2. Transcripts of records of both first and second cycle Degree with complete grading;
3. Any other document useful for the recognition of eligibility (such as the Diploma Supplement or alternatively Dichiarazione di valore in loco issued respectively by the University or the Italian embassy/consulate in the country where the degree was issued);
4. Copy of an identity document

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI TORINO

Failure to provide the documentation listed in points 1) and 2) will result in the exclusion from the selection procedure.

Whenever official documents are in a language other than Italian, English or French they must be combined with a complete Italian translation and certified as true copies by either the issuing institution or the Italian embassy/consulate as per existing provisions.

Applicants who obtained a recognition of eligibility to enter PhD studies issued by an Italian University must submit the official declaration together with their application and documents listed in points 1), 2) and 4). Failure to provide the documentation listed in points 1) and 2) will result in the exclusion from the selection procedure.

Results of the recognition of eligibility will not be communicated directly to the candidates. The results will be published exclusively on the University website: <https://en.unito.it/postdegree/phd/sociology-and-methodology-social-research>.

ART. 5 APPLICATION AND DEADLINE

Application to the PHD Programme must be submitted only through the online platform. Applications received by email will not be taken into consideration.

Detailed guidelines about how to register within the platform and how to upload the application form and requested documents are available at "How to apply for PhD Programme" – at <https://en.unito.it/research/phd/phd-programmes>.

Applicants must register first, then choose the application language (English), and then the PhD Programme within which they apply.

After choosing the application language (English), candidates must select the PhD Programme, follow the guidelines to complete the registration and upload the APPLICATION FORM (Annex 1) and any other required materials.

Applications must be submitted within 7th June 2018 at 12.00 p.m. (noon) Central European local time.

Applications may be integrated with additional documentation within the deadline 7th June 2018 at 12.00 (noon) Central European local time.

Applicants are kindly invited to submit their application well in advance before the deadline. Applicants are responsible for verifying the correct completion of the online procedure. Complaints pertaining to any system malfunctioning due to website traffic overload close to deadline will not be accepted.

Each application must be submitted with the following documents:

(All documents must be uploaded in Portable Document Format – PDF)

1) APPLICATION FORM (ANNEX 1). This application form is available at <https://en.unito.it/research/phd/phd-programmes>. Applicants need to download it, fill it in and upload

it in pdf format on the online platform. It is compulsory to fill in all the parts of the form and the information to be provided includes:

- Second Level university degree that may be evaluated as equivalent to an Italian second level degree and that gives access to PhD programmes
- List of publications (maximum n.3) and other relevant documents;
- Other qualifications;
- Honours;
- Research experience;
- Level of competence of the English language (at least level B2).

Only degrees and qualifications already hold by the deadline of the present Call for applications (except for candidates admitted under condition of obtaining the 2nd level degree) will be assessed.

If applicants are holders of Binational Second Level Degree, they should choose amongst one of the two degrees in case of double degrees or they can participate with the joint degree.

Applicants applying under condition to attain their Italian Master's Degree must upload a self-certification including transcripts of records with grades, weighted average and credits relating to their Master Degree and their Bachelor Degree.

Applicants applying under condition to attain their international qualification of Master's Degree or equivalent must upload the documentation as indicated in Art. 4, with the exception of their Master's Degree.

Application forms filled in by hand will not be taken into consideration and applicants will be excluded from the selection and evaluation procedure.

2) ABSTRACT OF THE MASTER'S DEGREE THESIS of maximum 3.000 bits (spaces included, bibliography excluded);

3) OFFICIAL CERTIFICATE OR SELF-CERTIFIED¹ declaration (ANNEX 2) of transcripts of records with grades, weighted average and credits relating to their Master's Degree (both 1st and 2nd cycle degree).

4) LETTERS OF REFERENCES (if required by ANNEX 4). During the application procedure candidates must specify the name of one or two referees, who will submit his/her reference through the online procedure. Once this information is provided referees will be invited to upload their letters. Upload must be completed within Call for admission deadline (7th June 2018).

¹ Regulations on self-certified documents are applicable to Italian, EU and non-EU nationals regularly residing in Italy only for data which can be attested or certified by Italian public authorities. Candidates with international qualifications must therefore submit original or certified true copies as set out in art. 4 of the Call.

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI TORINO

5) RESEARCH PROJECT, written in English (minimum 2.000 words and maximum 4.000 words, excluding the bibliography), choosing one of the themes proposed by the PhD Programme. Further details are provided in the PhD Programme Information sheet (Annex 4).

6) EDIT PUBLICATIONS (excluding degree thesis), maximum three

7) Any OTHER DOCUMENT specifically listed in the PhD Programme Information sheet (Annex 4).

8) A copy of IDENTIFICATION DOCUMENT/PASSPORT

Applicants who already hold a PhD degree are eligible but may only apply for positions without scholarships/financial support.

ART. 6 APPLICATION FEE

Once the on-line application process is complete, the system will generate the Request for Payment Form (called MAV). The compulsory fee for the submitted application amounts to € 50.00.

Payment is due by 7th June 2018, without exception. Applicants who do not pay the application fee will be excluded from the competition. The application fee is not refundable.

Applicants with international qualifications are exempt from paying the application fee.

ART. 7 EXAMINATION BOARD

Examination Board are composed according to the University Regulations about PhD programmes. Board composition will be published on University websites after Call closure at the following web pages: <https://www.unito.it/postlaurea/dottorato/sociologia-e-metodologia-della-ricerca-sociale> and <https://en.unito.it/postdegree/phd/sociology-and-methodology-social-research>.

Examination Board is responsible for the whole selection and evaluation procedure, including the finalizing of ranking list.

ART. 8 SELECTION AND EVALUATION PROCEDURE, RANKING LISTS

The entrance exam, aimed at assessing applicant's attitude to scientific research, will be carried out according to the criteria outlined in PhD Programme Information Sheet (Annex 4).

Each candidate is ranked by the Examining Board using 100 points. The points awarded for each test, the criteria for attributing them and the threshold scores to pass to the next phase of the selection are listed in the PhD Programme Information Sheet (Annex 4). To assess international qualifications, the Examining Board will adopt equivalent criteria.

The PhD course in Sociology and Methodology of Social Research (SOMET) is entirely in English, so the interview will be held exclusively in English in order to ascertain the knowledge and the linguistic competence (which must be at least level B2).

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI TORINO

The interview may be conducted online, upon a duly reasoned request approved by the Examination Board. In this case, applicants should send a request via email to the Examination Board no later than 5 days before the interview takes place.

The final merit ranking lists of successful candidates will be published on the University websites: <https://www.unito.it/postlaurea/dottorato/sociologia-e-metodologia-della-ricerca-sociale> and <https://en.unito.it/postdegree/phd/sociology-and-methodology-social-research>. This publication is the sole official communication. Candidates will not receive any personal communication concerning the lists of successful candidates.

Applicants will be admitted to the PhD Programme according to the order of the final list of successful candidates according to available positions of the PhD programme, by considering information provided in PhD Programme Information Sheet (i.e. positions reserved to students with international qualifications)

If the PhD programme Information Sheet (Annex 4) provides scholarships bound to specific research projects or themes, the Examination Board may express an assessment of eligibility for the assignment of those scholarships bound to specific research projects/themes, by considering the specific skills, and experiences of applicants.

Should successful candidates withdraw, their positions shall be assigned to qualified candidates according to the order of the final merit ranking list, except as provided for positions reserved and positions with scholarships bound to research topics.

If applicants have obtained the same score in the ranking list, scholarships will be awarded according to their respective financial situations, pursuant to D.P.C.M. 9/04/2001. Positions without scholarship will be assigned to the youngest applicant, pursuant to Article 3 of Law N. 127 dated 15/05/1997.

ART. 9 ENROLMENT PROCEDURE FOR APPLICANTS HOLDING INTERNATIONAL QUALIFICATION

Successful applicants holding international qualifications must confirm their enrolment into the PhD programme through the same on-line procedure used for submitting the applications within 5 days from the publication of final merit ranking list.

Missing the deadline will result in exclusion from the PhD programme.

After the online enrolment confirmation, from the 3rd September 2018 to 12th September 2018, successful applicants holding international qualifications must send by email to PhD Office dottorati@unito.it the following documentation:

3. Declaration about job activities FORM C (this form can be downloaded from <http://www.unito.it/ricerca/fare-ricerca-unito/dottorati-di-ricerca>)

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI TORINO

4. FORM A1 (applicable only for those positions with scholarship);
5. a passport-sized photograph signed on the back
6. a photocopy of identity document/passport;
7. a photocopy of Italian Tax Code (Codice Fiscale);
8. payment receipt of tuition fees for enrolment to PhD Programmes as set out in the University Regulation of Taxes and Contribution. For payment please use the specific form provided by the on-line enrolment procedure.

Missing the deadline will result in exclusion from the PhD programme.

Applicants who applied under condition of obtaining 2nd cycle degree must communicate the date of the award of their qualification within 31 October 2018 by sending ANNEX 3 of this call to the PhD Office by email (dottorati@unito.it). Missing the deadline will result in the exclusion of the PhD program.

ART. 11 SCHOLARSHIPS: GENERAL CONDITIONS

Available scholarships will be assigned by the Doctoral Board of PhD Programme.

The annual amount of the PhD scholarship is € 16.350,00, including pension contributions charged to the recipient.

The scholarship is confirmed on a yearly basis, provided that the PhD student has completed the required programme activities during the year and that the Academic board admits them to the successive year of the PhD.

The scholarship is paid monthly in arrears. The amount of the scholarship is increased for any period of activity abroad by 50%, for a total period that must not exceed half of the duration of the PhD course. Scholarships funded by an external body and those that do not provide such benefits are not eligible for this increase.

Candidates with scholarships funded by external bodies must become acquainted with the specific conditions applicable to their scholarship as set out in the agreement with the funding body.

The PhD Scholarship cannot be combined with any other kind of scholarship, except for those awarded by national and international institutions to support PhD students' training periods abroad.

The PhD Scholarship cannot be combined with a research fellowship (assegno di ricerca). Individuals who have benefitted from a previous PhD scholarship (entirely or in part) cannot be awarded a second PhD scholarship, unless the amount received for the previous scholarship has been returned. Scholarships are not compatible with specialist training contracts, in accordance with Legislative Decree N. 368 dated August 17th 1999 and with apprenticeship contracts in accordance with Legislative Decree N. 167/2011 Article 5.

ART. 12 RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF PHD STUDENTS

Admission to PhD programmes obliges PhD students to full time attendance of the PhD programme.

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI TORINO

PhD students must regularly attend courses and carry out all research and study activities assigned to them by the relevant Department of the University, according to the procedures set out by the academic board of the PhD programme.

PhD students may carry out tutorial activities for undergraduate and postgraduate students, as well as supplementary teaching activities as part of their training project; these activities are not eligible for an increase of scholarship. All activities must be previously authorised by the Academic Board for a maximum of forty hours per academic year. The limit is not applicable after the third year of the PhD Programme.

PhD students in medicine may participate in clinical assistance activities.

Regarding attendance of PhD courses and achievement of the PhD qualification, the University Regulations on PhD Schools and PhD programmes of the University of Torino shall apply.

ART. 13 INCOMPATIBILITY

Registration in a PhD Programme is incompatible with enrolment in other undergraduate and postgraduate degrees, Italian University master courses, other PhD Programmes and specialised courses organised by private institutions pursuant to art. 17, paragraph 96, Law 127/1997.

Candidates registered in any of the above mentioned courses must comply with the PhD enrolment requirements within 15 days from enrolment, under penalty of exclusion from PhD programme.

The relevant incompatibility rules are set out in articles 27 and 28 of the University Regulations on PhD Schools and Programmes of the University of Torino.

ART. 14 CODE OF ETHICS

PhD students must comply with the Code of Ethics of the University Community issued by the University of Torino with Rectoral Decree no. 3890 of 21 June 2012, pursuant to art. 2, paragraph 4 of Law no. 240 of 30 December 2010.

The Code of Ethics of the University community is published on the website: <http://www.unito.it/ateneo/statuto-e-regolamenti/codici-di-comportamento>

ART. 15 COLLECTING QUALIFICATIONS AND PUBLICATIONS

In the case of withdrawal or exclusion from the PhD programme, candidates can collect any original copy of their qualifications and/or publications they may have submitted when enrolling. The University will not cover the cost of this service.

ART. 16 PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA AND RIGHT OF ACCESS

Pursuant to art. 13 of Legislative Decree 196/2003, applicants are hereby informed that their personal data shall be collected and processed in an automated database by the University of Torino to be used in the selection procedure and enrolment of successful PhD students. The data provided by applicants will also be used in the performance of the University's institutional functions, within the limits established by the law and regulations and in observance of the principles of transparency, correctness, confidentiality and necessity.

Pursuant to art. 4, letter a) of Legislative Decree 196/2003, "processing" means all operations or series of operations carried out with or without the help of electronic instruments concerning obtaining, recording, holding, organisation, adaptation, alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment, combination, blocking, erasure or destruction of the information or data, even when not filed in a database.

The collected data may be shared with other public and private subjects according to the procedures and within the limits established by the above-mentioned Legislative Decree and the Regulation for implementing the "Code on personal data protection" of the University of Torino.

The data requested must be supplied for the evaluation process. If the data is not supplied, the candidate will be excluded from the selection procedure. Under art. 7 of Legislative Decree 196/2003 and amendments, applicants have the right to access the data concerning them, as well as some complementary rights including the right to amend, update, complete or delete erroneous or incomplete data, or data gathered without compliance to current legislation, and the right to oppose the use of the data for legitimate reasons.

These rights may be enforced against the Rector of the University of Torino, who is the Data Controller.

The Director of the Department of Research and International Relations of the University of Torino is responsible for the processing of personal data and the data access procedure.

ART. 17 REFERENCE TO THE REGULATIONS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TORINO

For all other terms and regulations not expressly set out in this Call, the University Regulations on PhD Schools and programmes of the University of Torino shall apply.

The English translation of the Call for Admission is not binding for legal purposes. In the event of dispute or disagreements, the Italian version of the Call prevails.

The Director
Dr. Marco Degani

The Rector
Prof. Gianmaria Ajani

DOMANDA DI AMMISSIONE / APPLICATION FORM²

We remind you that, as indicated in the Art. 5 of the Call "APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION", applications for admission completed by hand will not be accepted. In this case, candidates will be excluded from the selection and assessment process. The application form must be accompanied by a copy of the valid identity document / passport.
